

Professor Yuval Sinai

President of Orot Israel College

Professor Sinai is a Law Professor who is widely recognized for his expertise in Jewish Law and Civil Procedure. Before studying at Bar Ilan University, Professor Sinai spent several years learning at Yeshivat Birkat Moshe in Maaleh Adumim. Prof. Sinai has served as a Professor of Law at Bar Ilan University and a visiting professor at the Hebrew University in Israel, as well as at a number of North American universities, including Yale University in New Haven and McGill University in Montreal. Prior to his recent appointment as President of Orot Israel College, he served as an Associate Professor of Jewish Law, and as the Director of the Center of the Application of Jewish Law (ISMA) at the School of Law at Netanya Academic College. Prof. Sinai has published three books, among them Maimonides and Contemporary Tort Theories (Cambridge University Press, 2018).

Lecture Topics:

- Is Democracy Kosher?
- Can Israel be both Jewish and Democratic?
- Jewish Law in Israel - Law, Religion and State
- Modern Applications of Talmudic Narratives
- A Contemporary View on the Maimonidean Tort Theory: Law, Religion, Economics, and Morality
- Reflections on Jewish Democracy
- The Renewal of the Jewish Laws of War in the State of Israel
- Jewish Law and Morals, Equity and Ethical Concepts
- Redemption of Captives in Exchange for the Release of Terrorists
- Biomedical Law - The Right to Parenthood (“The Nahmani Case”)

Nomi Spanglet

Director of Resource Development and Public Affairs
Orot Israel College of Education

W www.orot.ac.il | @ nomi@orot.ac.il | F 972-3-906-1279 | T 972-3-9061207