

Dear Orot Friends,

As we celebrate Hanukkah, a time of resilience and hope, we want to take a moment to express our deep gratitude for your continued support and prayers. The past 14 months have been incredibly challenging for all of Am Yisrael, and your brachot have meant so much to us as we navigate these difficult times.

Orot Israel College of Education remains resilient, with G-d's help, with new and returning students preparing for the 2024/25 academic year. Many of our students have been directly impacted by the ongoing conflict, with some serving on the front lines, some in key areas and others who have suffered bereavement. Despite the hardships, we remain optimistic, especially with the recent ceasefire offering hope for the future.

Our mission is now more vital than ever. As the largest teachers' college in Israel, Orot College plays a key role in shaping the next generation of Zionists, educators, and leaders. Our students, who are the future of Israel, are not only committed to teaching but are also deeply dedicated to defending the land they love.

As we approach the end of the year, we ask for your continued support. Your year-end donation will directly impact the education of our students, many of whom are balancing the challenges of both the battlefield and the classroom. Your generosity will:
